DD/S [REDACTED]

2 November 1961

1. Mr. Kirkpatrick advised me that the Director had approved of awarding the Ten-Year Service Certificates sometime on the fourteenth of November. He also agreed that it would be better to have 120 people attend rather than 80. I have instructed [REDACTED] to proceed along these lines. H

4. [REDACTED] telephoned to ask whether we thought it would be all right to purchase some gift for the Director, such as a small silver tray with the Agency seal on it, to present to him at the Alibi Club dinner which we will be having before too long. I told him that I was sure I could speak for those people in the DD/S Area and that we would be glad to contribute our share.
